The Walsingham Way 10 miles

An easy ride for the most part using single track roads and part of an old railway track. Explore the fascinating village of Little Walsingham. Mentioned in the Domesday Book, Walsingham has Saxon origins although most of the village you see today is from the Medieval period.

The Binham Byway 14 Miles

Visit six of North Norfolk's prettiest villages on this route, historical places of interest. There are pubs and shops along the route for refreshments. Binham is a lovely unspoilt village next to the ruins of the 12th Century Priory. The Chequers Inn offers a great choice of food. The Village Green has a medieval Wayside Cross which marks the site of the village fair held there since the reign of Henry I.

Burnham Market & Creake By Cycle 20 miles

Allow a whole day at an easy pace. Visit Burnham Market and the birthplace of one of Norfolk's most famous sons Lord Horatio Nelson. The Hoste Arms, is named after Admiral Sir William Hoste, one of Nelson's proteges.

Return via Creake Abbey Studios and Little Walsingham one of Norfolk's finest Medieval villages on to towards picturesque Binham with its imposing Priory.
